WK 1Report

The 2025-26 season got underway this week with tree teams relocating to new home venues. Cronyshaw |||||Social Club is now closed on Tuesdays so their teams have had to find new premises to play their home games. The A team have moved to Wardle Con Club, while the B team have moved in to Castleton Bowling Club to become their B Team. The other team on the move is Victoria Snooker Club who have relocated to Rugby Road Bowling Club.

For the opening week's matches, the current league champions, Castleton A took on their new B team where the highlight of the night were Terry Jump break of 45 and Paul Mather's breaks of 51 and 94. The A team running out the winners 4-1.

Seedfield A were hosts to Elton Liberal Club for whom Bruce Holden was in excellent form for the first game. Danny Morgan and Paul Taylor endured a very tight second game and James Fletcher overcame a huge handicap deficit to claim the final game.

Seedfield B travelled to Walshaw Con Club and were in control of the match following narrow wins by Paul Holt and Steve Chant. However, in the final game, Brian Ridley had a target of 179 to claim the aggregate points, but Dave Samuels overcame the handicap deficit to take the final game 200-177 to ensure the home side victory by the narrowest possible margin.

The final match was postponed between Wardle Con and Rugby Road due to players being on holiday.
